INSURANCE RECOVERY

Van Ness Feldman's insurance recovery team helps clients realize the full value of their insurance assets. Utilizing our decades of experience as skilled advocates and negotiators for policyholders' rights, we have recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in policy benefits for our clients under a variety of policy types, including comprehensive general liability, excess or umbrella liability, directors and officers liability, errors and omissions, employment practices, and first-party property damage.

In the context of environmental claims, our insurance recovery team has used their client's pre-1986 comprehensive general liability policies to get insurers to pay for all investigation and cleanup costs.

Selected examples of industries we've represented include:

- Oil and Gas
- Chemical manufacturers
- Product manufacturers
- Fireworks Display
- Construction companies
- Real estate developers
- Dry Cleaning
- Metal Plating and Recycling
- Lumber mills
