Nancy Macan McNally

*Principal, Managing Director, Governmental Issues**

Nancy Macan McNally has over 25 years of experience managing government policy issues and representing clients before Congress and federal agencies.

Ms. McNally's clients include companies and national coalitions seeking changes in federal policies on energy, environment, natural resources, transportation, and health care issues. Ms. McNally has particular expertise in the development and implementation of legislative strategies, grassroots and media initiatives, direct lobbying, public education, and the coordination of comprehensive lobbying efforts among multiple organizations.

Examples of Ms. McNally's experience include:

- Representing McKesson Corporation, the world's largest health care services company, on a wide range of health care policy issues before Congress and federal agencies for the past 18 years.
- Since its inception in 1991, serving as executive director of the National Endangered Species Act Reform Coalition (NESARC), the only broad-based national coalition seeking legislative and regulatory improvements to the Endangered Species Act. In this capacity, Ms. McNally is responsible for developing and implementing legislative and public relations strategies, coalition management, and serving as the coalition's spokesperson before Congress and the media.
- Serving as Deputy Executive Director of Consumers United for Rail Equity (CURE), a national coalition seeking improvements to federal rail policy.
- Representing Sonoma County Water Agency (SCWA) since 1999 on appropriations and environmental issues before Congress and federal agencies. The firm assisted SCWA with the establishment of the Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery Fund and has successfully secured appropriations for the Fund in each of the past nine years.
- Representing the International Bottled Water Association on a wide range of federal legislative issues that affect bottlers, suppliers, and distributors.
- Representing a coalition of public utilities on federal legislative issues, including energy, environment and tax issues.
