Mosby Perrow to Join Van Ness Feldman

WASHINGTON, DC – Van Ness Feldman LLP is pleased to announce that Mosby Perrow will join the firm as a partner on September 1, 2021.

Until recently, Mr. Perrow served as a Vice President and Deputy General Counsel at Kinder Morgan, one of the largest energy infrastructure companies in North America, where he managed the legal team responsible for Kinder Morgan's interstate natural gas pipeline systems. Mr. Perrow's previous experience also includes several years at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Mr. Perrow has a wealth of experience on regulatory and policy issues affecting natural gas pipelines and the electric industry, including work on rate, certificate, compliance, investigation, and enforcement matters. He has successfully managed the full range of legal and regulatory challenges affecting pipeline companies.

Announcing the addition of Mr. Perrow, Susan Olenchuk, leader of the firm's Pipeline & LNG practice, said, "Mosby is an exceptional and creative attorney who adds valuable private sector experience and perspective to the firm's energy regulatory team. Mosby is well-positioned to advise clients navigating the challenging transitions underway in the energy sector." Firm Co-Chairs Nancy Macan McNally and Doug Smith said, "Mosby is highly regarded in the energy industry as a thoughtful, solutions-oriented lawyer and advocate. We are very excited to have him join us."

Mr. Perrow will provide pipeline and electric sector clients with regulatory counsel and strategic advice on current energy policy debates. He also expects to advise start-up innovators in the energy space.

As President of the Energy Bar Association (EBA), Mr. Perrow is leading EBA efforts to focus on pressing issues such as the Texas energy crisis, cybersecurity risks to critical energy infrastructure, and minimizing methane emissions.

Mr. Perrow will be resident in Houston. He holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Richmond School of Law, a master's degree in English Literature from the University of Richmond and a bachelor's degree in English Literature from Princeton University.
