ANNE M. HERTEL

PARALEGAL

Professional Background

Anne primarily supports the Real Estate and Land Use Practices, where she utilizes her diverse background in mortgage financing, real estate, and litigation. She is highly detailed, organized, and passionate about her work product and contribution to the firm. Her analytical skills, intuition, and ability to think outside the box serve her well with both research and discovery-related projects.

When she's not in the office she loves spending time outdoors, volunteering, and furthering her training in martial arts.
