

CONTACT

mab@vnf.com
202.298.1924

PRACTICE AREAS

Pipeline & LNG

EDUCATION

Colegio San Ignacio, La Paz,
Bolivia

MARCO BRACAMONTE

PARALEGAL

Professional Background

With over 15 years of experience, Marco Bracamonte supports the firm's attorneys and clients with natural gas regulatory and transactional matters before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. He also assists with special litigation contract issues. In addition to researching and reporting on various proceedings before the Commission, Marco is experienced in retrieving criminal records and making filings at the D.C. Superior Court.

Marco has completed courses of cite checking and legal research conducted by the National Capital Area Paralegal Association (NCAPA). He is fluent in oral and written Spanish.

Representative Experience

- Provides substantive support on issues within litigation parameters protocol and support in discovery matters, digest, and work product for attorney review.
- Searches electronic databases to obtain requested documents for interrogatories, production requests, deposition binders, and general attorney inquiries.
- Cite-checks and shepherdizes legal cases for court filings.
- Obtains and distributes FERC orders following commission meetings.
- Uses Spanish skills to translate documents for clients in civil and immigration matters (pro bono).