Van Ness Feldman LLP
vnf.com

CONTACT

rkresch@vnf.com

202.298.1840

PRACTICES

Electric

Renewable Energy

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School

Haverford College

BAR AND COURT ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia Bar

ROBERT V. KRESCH

ASSOCIATE

Professional Background

Rob Kresch is an associate in the firm's Energy Regulatory practice, where he represents clients on a broad range of federal regulatory matters before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC).

Prior to Van Ness Feldman, Rob was a summer associate at a law firm in Washington D.C., where he researched and drafted legal memoranda on regulatory questions and supported litigation matters, including developing arguments and preparing deposition summaries. He also interned with the Employment Unit at Greater Boston Legal Services, where he represented individual clients and conducted legal research and writing.

Earlier in his career, Rob served as a congressional intern for Congressman Josh Gottheimer, collaborating with legislative staff in Washington D.C. and assisting with constituent and policy matters.

Rob earned his J.D. from Harvard Law School, where he provided clients with counsel and in-court representation as a member of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau (HLAB).

Government Service

Office of Congressman Josh Gottheimer

Congressional Intern, 2017

Alerts

- FERC Denies Petition for Ban on Alleged "Junk and Jewel" Packaging of Natural Gas Pipeline Capacity but Invites Complaints, 03/16/2026
- FERC Takes Action to Streamline its Environmental Review of Hydropower Projects, 02/20/2026
- PHMSA Issues Final Rule Allowing Integrity Management Alternative for Class Location Changes, 01/15/2026
- FERC Is Considering a Blanket Authorization Program for LNG Facilities, 11/21/2025